Jennifer Bowman Sauder, Executive Committee member-at-large

Jennifer Bowman Sauder grew up in Harrisonburg, Virginia and studied English at Eastern Mennonite University. She wrote science curriculum for several years in Hershey, Pennsylvania, and that role cemented her love of collaboration. Jen and her family moved to Lancaster County six years ago from Charlottesville, Virginia, and they attend Landisville Mennonite Church. Jen serves on the Ministry Leadership Team at Landisville, where she also enjoys singing and playing violin. She likes to spend her time reading and writing, preparing and eating food, doing projects at their home, and growing and tending things – vegetables, flowers, their three young children, their dog and their rabbit.
