

Ministry Seminars, Fall 2018

Atlantic Coast Conference is offering three events for pastors and interested congregational leaders. Each is free of charge, but registration is requested. These optional seminars are in addition to the healthy boundaries training that is required of ACC Credentialed Leaders.

Continuing education is strongly suggested for ACC credentialed leaders. An update on continuing ed. is requested by the conference every three years

To register for these events or see more information, visit atlanticcoastconference.net/seminars.

August Difficult Conversations, webinar

Mike Diller, Director of Wellspan-Philhaven EAP

23

7-8 pm

This webinar discusses the importance of staff accountability, what happens when Pastors avoid difficult conversations with staff, as well as concrete strategies for discussing performance issues with employees and setting limits and boundaries with congregation members. This course will be held via webinar. Log-in information will be emailed to registered participants.

Empowering Pastor-Congregation Relationships Using the PCRC Model

*Del Glick, retired pastor of Washington (D.C.) Community Fellowship
Blossom Hill Mennonite Church, 333 Delp Road, Lancaster*

This training is intended for teams interested in developing or improving a Pastor-Congregation Relations Committee (PCRC). The three-hour seminar will provide an overview of the role and purpose of a PCRC and explore best practices and cautions that teams can implement to develop a structure, system, and strategy that fits each specific congregation.

This event involves discussion and strategy development based on each congregational context so PCRC teams are encouraged to attend together.

Del Glick played an active role in developing the PCRC training content for Mennonite Church USA and enjoys assisting congregational teams better care for their pastors.

Sept.

8

9 am to Noon

Nov. Burnout and Compassion Fatigue, webinar

Marganne Hoffman, Coordinator of Wellspan-Philhaven EAP

7

12-1 pm

Join us over lunch! This webinar highlights that both compassion fatigue and burnout can lead to significant complications in an individual's life both personally and professionally. Training focuses on self-care and explores strategies to promote healthy habits and ways to possibly prevent the onset of compassion fatigue and burnout. This course will be held via webinar. Log-in information will be emailed to registered participants.

All three events are free to attend.

Please register at atlanticcoastconference.net/seminars