

Discussion Questions

for Friday evening gatherings

These questions are intended to help your group discuss Meghan Larissa Good's keynote address and to draw members into conversation about the Church's opportunity

1. What makes a church truly Jesus-centered? How is a Jesus-centered church different from any other social club or activist group?
2. Where is your church tempted to fall into the false choice Meghan described between (a) spirituality that makes no difference for the world and (b) activity that is disconnected from spiritual vitality? What is the cost if either side is left out?
- 3.
4. Where or how do you think the Spirit is currently leading your local church?
  - a. Where is your growth edge?
  - b. What is your gift?
5. What might need to change in your church to get on board with a move of God that is expanding the circle of community beyond its previous boundaries?
